

P4C POSITIVE RELATIONSHIPS

Including Sex and Relationships Education, Citizenship, British Values, Anti-Radicalisation and Extremism and Social Skills.
Recommended Questions

LAUGHOLOGY
HAPPY-CENTRED
SCHOOL PROGRAMME

FOR FOUNDATION STAGE:

- › How do we show people that we like them?
- › Have you ever been told off for doing something dangerous? How did it feel?
- › Who is responsible for keeping you clean and tidy?
- › How can your behaviour affect other people?

FOR YEARS 1 AND 2:

- › How do people show us that they like us?
- › If a friend did something dangerous, what would you do?
- › How can we tell if something is fair or not?
- › Who is responsible for keeping you clean and tidy?
- › Is it more important to give your opinion, or listen to others' opinions?
- › How can you help someone to improve, without making them feel rubbish?

P4C POSITIVE RELATIONSHIPS

Including Sex and Relationships Education, Citizenship, British Values, Anti-Radicalisation and Extremism and Social Skills.
Recommended Questions

LAUGHOLOGY
HAPPY-CENTRED
SCHOOL PROGRAMME

FOR YEARS 3 AND 4:

- > Is it a good or bad thing to have friends who don't always agree with you?
- > How do we show respect for other people?
- > Is violence ever okay?
- > Why do we punish people?
- > If you knew a friend was planning to do something dangerous, what would you do?
- > Do you have a set of personal values?
- > Can you think of a time when you have tried to find out more about others' values, beliefs and opinions?
- > What are your top tips for good personal hygiene?
- > What's happening in the world at the moment that worries you? How do you cope with worry?

FOR YEARS 5 AND 6:

- > How will you cope with changes to your body?
- > What are your top tips for good personal hygiene?
- > What kind of physical contact is acceptable and what isn't?
- > What do you know about human reproduction?
- > How will you cope with changes caused by life events e.g. transitions and loss?
- > Should gender matter in friendships?
- > How can we make sure that we don't stereotype others?
- > How do you know if an online friendship is healthy?
- > How do you know if a face to face friendship/relationship is healthy?
- > What boundaries do you have around your privacy?
- > How do we show respect for other people?
- > Are you English/ British/ European/ Asian/ Earthling?
- > Is equality ever unfair?
- > Are people dangerous because of what they might do?
- > Do you have a set of personal values? How often do you reflect on these, as you learn more?
- > Is it okay to have an opinion on others' values and beliefs?
- > Should two people who love each other be married or in a civil partnership?
- > Is it okay to force someone into marriage or a civil partnership?
- > What's happening in the world at the moment that worries you? How do you cope with worry?