I can show good listening and support skills by:

SKILL	1 for not so good 10 for great	What could I do to improve?
Looking at the person who is talking.
Nodding to show listening.
Asking open questions such as: Where were you? How did that happen?
Waiting for the person to finish before asking a question.
Empathising by saying things like: That must have been difficult, I understand.
Putting the person at ease with positive words and gestures.
Anything else (add your own)

Support Network-Wider Community

Y5

LAUGHOLOGY
HAPPY-CENTRED
SCHOOL PROGRAMME

Remember that a problem shared is a problem halved. Remember that you have friends, teachers, carers, family and people in the wider community who are more than willing to help and support you....but sometimes we don't feel like 'bothering' them. Keeping a note of your network will help when the time comes to call on someone.

Someone who makes me feel good about me

Someone I can totally rely on

Someone who will tell me how well or badly I am doing

Someone I can talk to if I'm worried

Someone who really makes me stop and think about what I am doing

Someone who is lively with me

Someone who introduces me to new ideas
